IPISC Employees help those in need this Holiday Season

The holidays, more than other times, bring those in need to the forefront of our minds, and hopefully keep us mindful of how very fortunate each and every one of us is, often taking food, clothing, shelter and our jobs for granted.

IPISC's employee generosity to the Wayside Christian Mission

IPISC employees are proud to support the local Wayside Christian Mission each year with toys, clothing and the basic necessities needed by individuals and families who rely upon the generosity and support that the Mission provides to the community.
